

Self-assessment sheet

Name: _____

Date: _____

After working on this unit: (circle the right smiley)

I can talk about basic features of the continent where I live

I can place most of the European countries in the political map

I have learned information about the European countries

I am able to do a presentation about other country

My work on this unit was:

Excellent

Good

Not bad

I have to work more

The unit was:

Nice

OK

A bit boring

Tick your progress:

I can recognize words and expressions related to the content of the lesson.
I can understand the most important information in the texts given.
I can speak about different themes in the lesson.
I can talk to my classmates about the lesson topics.
I can write short texts about the lesson topics.

Teacher's observation sheet

The student knows basic information about our continent.
The student can place European countries in the map.
The student has learned the new vocabulary and structures introduced.
The student uses the L2 in order to carry out the different activities in group.
The student solves the different activities proposed.
The student understands the information given (oral and written).
The student is able to talk about different features of the countries researched.			