

Hi student!

First, I want you to take ten minutes (no less), to write your own definition of "success". No matter if the definition is long or short, is more or less formal, do not worry about it ! The thing is, and it is important, the definition must be defined. Personal. Imagine that people were to learn that definition in the future.